PARTIES

1. Hilton Plein, his wife Janet Plein and his children Colleen Plein and Marc Plein all are individuals. Plaintiffs live in Long Grove, Illinois and are citizens of the State of Illinois.
2. Reid Lopatka is an individual. He lives in Bristol, Wisconsin and is a citizen of the State of Wisconsin.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This action arises under the Anticybersquatting and Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d) and 15 U.S.C. § 1129(1)(A) and the Illinois Right of Publicity Act, 765 ILCS 1075/1 et seq.
4. This court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 as this case arises under the laws of the United States, specifically 15 U.S.C. § 1129(1)(A). This court has jurisdiction over the non-federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 as such claims are so related to the claims over which this Court has original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy.

5. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 as a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in this district and were directed against the Plaintiffs in this district.

FACTS

6. Defendant is a former business associate of Plaintiff Hilton Plein.
7. Plaintiffs Hilton Plein and Janet Plein are naturalized American citizens born and raised in South Africa.
8. On or about February 1, 2007, Defendant registered the following domain names:
  - a. HILTONPLEIN.COM
  - b. HILTONPLEIN.NAME
  - c. HILTONRPLEIN.COM
  - d. JANETPLEIN.COM
  - e. JANETPLEIN.NAME
  - f. COLLEENPLEIN.COM
  - g. COLLEENPLEIN.NAME
  - h. MARCPLEIN.COM
  - i. MARCPLEIN.NAME

The above domain names shall be referred to as the Plein Domain Names.

9. Each of the Plein Domain Names is registered through GoDaddy.com, Inc. with Defendant listed as the “Registrant” and “Administrative Contact.” A copy of the “WHOIS” registration search for each Plein Domain Name is attached as Exhibit A through I to this complaint and incorporated by reference herein.

10. At the time the Plein Domain Names were registered by Defendant, none of the Plaintiffs were aware that their names had been registered as domain names controlled by the Defendant.
11. None of the Plaintiffs gave permission to Defendant to register any of the Plein Domain Names that include or incorporate any portion of their rightful, legal names.
12. Upon registration of the Plein Domain Names, the Defendant exercised control over the Plein Domain Names. He created a website so that users of the Internet would be able to access the Plein Domain Names.
13. All of the Plein Domain Names point to the domain name HILTONPLEIN.COM. When a domain name points to another domain name it means that when an internet user types in the domain name, the user is automatically directed to the server hosting the domain name to which the pointer is directed. The website then appears on the user’s computer screen.
14. The websites using the Plein Domain Names were available to anyone using the Internet worldwide. The websites were able to be viewed in Illinois and, in fact, were viewed by Plaintiffs.
15. In early April 2008, all of the Plein Domain Names pointed to the HILTONPLEIN.COM site that contained a webpage attached to this Complaint as Exhibit J entitled “The Dodo Bird” with a picture of a Dodo bird with the caption Smugfish. It also contained the statement: “You can take the immigrant out of Africa, but you can’t take the African out of the immigrant!” Exhibit J is a screenshot of the website on April 13, 2008.

16. In April, 2008, the HILTONPLEIN.COM site also contained a page, attached to this Complaint as Exhibit K that stated, "The following domains are to be posted for auction on an undisclosed auction site: janetplein.com, janetplein.name, colleenplein.com, colleenplein.name, marcplein.com, marcplein.name." Exhibit K is a screenshot of the website on April 18, 2008.
17. In late April, 2008, the HILTONPLEIN.COM site contained a page, attached to this Complaint as Exhibit L that stated, "The following domains are to be posted for public auction on ebay in the very near future: hiltonplein.com, hiltonplein.name, hiltonrplein.com, janetplein.com, janetplein.name, colleenplein.com, colleenplein.name, marcplein.com, marcplein.name." Exhibit L is a screenshot of the website on April 30, 2008.
18. On May 20, 2008, the website content was changed to read: "The following domains are currently listed on a european domain auction site: hiltonplein.com, hiltonplein.name, hiltonrplein.com, janetplein.com, janetplein.name, colleenplein.com, colleenplein.name, marcplein.com, marcplein.name." Exhibit M is a screenshot of the website on May 29, 2009.
19. On June 8, 2008, the website content was changed again this time to read: "The domains previously listed on this site have been transferred to a new owner." However, Defendant is still listed as the Registrant and Administrative Contact. Exhibit N is a screenshot of the website on June 8, 2008.
20. As of June 25, 2008, the photo of the Dodo bird was removed as well as the text. The only statement on the website is www.hiltonplein.com. Exhibit O is a screenshot of the website on June 25, 2008.

21. Plaintiffs have not authorized Defendant to sell the Plein Domain Names to any party.
22. Plaintiffs have never authorized Defendant to act as their agent with regards to acquiring or selling the Plein Domain Names.
23. Plaintiffs have demanded that Defendant transfer ownership of the Plein Domain Names to the Plaintiffs but Defendant failed to respond to the demand letter and continued to make changes to the website as noted above. A copy of the demand letter is attached as Exhibit P.
24. As a result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs have been required to retain the services of an attorney and to file this lawsuit.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. § 1129

25. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the facts alleged in paragraphs 1-23 as if alleged herein.
26. Defendant registered the Plein Domain Names with the intent to profit from such name by selling them to either the Plaintiffs or to any third party.
27. This intent was specifically shown by the statements posted on the Plein Domain Name websites by Defendant that stated the Plein Domain Names "are to be posted for public auction on an undisclosed auction site" and later "are to be posted for public auction on ebay in the very near future."
28. The Plein Domain Names incorporate and use the names of the Plaintiffs without the consent of Plaintiffs, with the specific intent to profit from such name by selling the domain name for financial gain either to Plaintiffs or any third party.
29. The registration of a domain name that consists of the name of another living person, or a name substantially and confusingly similar thereto, without that person's consent, with the specific intent to profit from such name by selling the domain name for financial gain either to the Plaintiffs or any third party is a violation of 15 USC § 1129.

30. As a result of the violation of 15 USC § 1129, Plaintiffs are entitled to injunctive relief, including forfeiture or transfer of the Plein Domain Names to Plaintiffs, costs and attorneys' fees.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF THE ANTI-CYBERSQUATTING ACT

31. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the facts alleged in paragraphs 1-23 as if alleged herein.
32. Defendant at the time he acquired the Plein Domain Names knew that the Plein Domain Names were the names of the individual Plaintiffs.
33. Defendant at the time he acquired the Plein Domain Names had no intention of using the Plein Domain Names for the offering of any bona fide goods or services.
34. At the time Defendant acquired the Plein Domain Names, Defendant acquired multiple domain names with the intent to sell the domain names to Plaintiffs or other third parties.
35. Defendant acquired and registered the Plein Domain Names in an effort to confuse and deceive the public and injure Plaintiffs.
36. Defendant's actions are a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125 (d).
37. As a result of Defendant's action, Plaintiffs are entitled to statutory damages, court costs and attorneys' fees.
38. Because Defendant's actions were willful, Plaintiffs are entitled to 2 times the amount of statutory damages.

COUNT III
VIOLATION OF THE ILLINOIS RIGHT OF PUBLICITY ACT

39. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the facts alleged in paragraphs 1-23 as if alleged herein.
40. Defendant by registering the Plein Domain Names, establishing a website using the Plein Domain Names and offering to sell the Plein Domain Names made public use of each of the Plaintiff's individual identities in connection with the offering for sale a product or services.
41. Defendant's use of each of the Plaintiff's individual identities was for commercial purposes and is in violation of each of the Plaintiff's right of publicity.
42. Defendant did not obtain previous written consent from Plaintiffs to use Plaintiffs' identities.
43. Defendant's use of the Plaintiffs' individual identities for commercial purposes was willful.
44. Defendant's action is a violation of the Illinois Right of Publicity Act, 765 ILCS 1075/1 et seq.
45. Plaintiffs are entitled to statutory damages under the Illinois Right of Publicity Act, punitive damages, injunctive relief and reasonable attorneys' fees.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment against Defendant as follows:

- Award Plaintiffs statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d) for each domain name and for each individual Plaintiff.
- Award Plaintiffs 2 times the statutory damages for Defendant's willful action.
- Order Defendants to transfer the Plein Domain Names to Plaintiffs.
- Award Plaintiffs' their attorneys' fees and court costs.
- Enter a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from registering any domain name that uses the Plaintiffs' names.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Richard C. Balough', is written over a horizontal line.

Re: Violations of Anti-Cybersquatting Act

Dear Mr. Lopatka:

I represent Hilton Plein, his wife Janet Plein, and children Colleen Plein and Marc Plein. In violation of federal law, you have registered the following domain names that use my clients' given names:

Hiltonplein.com
Hiltonplein.name
Hiltonrplein.com
janetplein.com
janetplein.name
colleenplein.com
colleenplein.name
marcplein.name

You have no legitimate legal interest in any of the above domain names. These domain names incorporate the names of my clients: Hilton Plein, Janet Plein, Colleen Plein and Marc Plein. Recently, you have offered the domain names for sale and you are not using the domain names for any legitimate commercial purposes. The domain name hiltonplein.com is currently used as a marketing tool to sell it and the other domain names which you have pointed to the www.hiltonplein.com site. Your registration of these domain names was in bad faith. You are in violation of the federal Anti-Cybersquatting and Consumer Protection Act. Violation of this Act can result in penalties being assessed against you in the amount of up to $100,000 per domain name, or a total of $900,000 plus court costs and attorneys' fees.

My clients hereby demand that you immediately transfer all ownership of the domain names to them at no cost. If the transfer is not made within ten (10) business days of this letter, my clients will take all necessary legal action to obtain the domain names from you and to seek the maximum penalties that the court will allow. Once the domain names are transferred, you shall not attempt to register any domain names that are similar to my clients' names.

Sincerely,
